

Newsletter

West Virginia TSA

March 2022 Issue NO. 8

LOOKING FORWARD TO STATE CONFERENCE

Your state officer team is super excited to have everyone home at Cedar Lakes this year! We have many events and activities planned for conference for our first in-person conference since COVID. We want to wish you good luck in all of your competitions, and we hope that you can take advantage of every opportunity headed your way in the upcoming weeks!

West Virginia TSA would like to remind you of our COVID safety guidelines.

- > Wash your hands
- > Practice coughing/sneezing etiquette
- > Sanitize your area before and after use
- > Avoid communal options such as water fountains

STATE OFFICER SPOTLIGHT

Hello West Virginia TSA, I am beyond psych'd for the upcoming conference at the end of this month. The State Officer Team have been preparing relentlessly for it. I am so excited to be coming back home to Cedar Lakes for the 2022 State Conference. Getting to see you all again in person is a dream come true. Best of Luck to Every Single Member, State President: Pepper McCormick.

Made with PosterMyWall.com

ANNOUNCEMENTS

- Early Registration closes March 4
- Changes and late registration are due March 14th
- Testing begins March 7
- All project paperwork is due March 14
- Middle School Conference will be held March 23-24
- High School Conference will be held March 24-26